

LOCAL NEWS.

PAROLED PRISONERS.—In accordance with an order issued by Gen. Augur, the Provost Marshal at this place, directs all Paroled prisoners of War, now in Alexandria, Va., to report without delay at the Provost Marshal's office here, for the purpose of registering their name, rank, and residence. Gen. Augur's order states that "the residence of each prisoner with his name and rank will be recorded, and none will be allowed to wear the uniform of the rebel army. Each prisoner will be directed to report in person, at the office in which his name is registered once every ten days, and Provost Marshals will report promptly to these Headquarters all failures to comply with this order.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:—"Resolutions execrating the mad and fiendish crimes perpetrated in our city, have been adopted by the Confederate prisoners at the several localities where they are confined. A paroled prisoner in Alexandria, just from the South, denounces the assassination in unmeasured terms, and in a note to his friends, says that the sentiment of condemnation and denunciation is universal among the people in the South."

There is not much change to notice in the prices in market to-day, though the tendency to decline is manifest. Vegetables are becoming more abundant. There is a good supply of fish, at declining prices.

The Richmond Whig says that Mr. Charles Lewis, of Rockingham County, is to be Secretary of the Commonwealth, under Gov. Pierpont's administration in Richmond.

The weather has been rainy all this week.—The grass in the fields is now thick; and gardening is going on everywhere.

A number of ladies, from this place, who have been absent during the war, have returned during the last three or four days.

Entire good order prevails in this city, much to the credit of the military authorities.

The Washington Star says:—"The conspiracy plot is being thoroughly sifted, and the investigations are still in progress, under the direction of Col. Welles, on the part of the military authorities. A large amount of testimony has already been taken, and parties who have any information serving to throw light upon the matter are promptly coming forward. Marshal Muarey and other New York officials are here assisting in the investigation."

The appearance of the plague in Russia, its awful ravages there, and its apparent advance, have alarmed all Europe. Already in England the strictest sanitary measures are proposed, and a general cleaning, drainage, &c., urged upon the inhabitants of all towns and cities.

Gen. Lee's known and expressed sentiments with regard to the late murder of President Lincoln, and of the grief of the people of the South and North, at such an event, are commented on with satisfaction by many of the Northern papers.

The military authorities in Richmond think it best not to have any public meeting in relation to the death of President Lincoln, in that city, at present.

The question of providing for the defence of Canada has given rise to a protracted debate in the British House of Commons. Strong doubts appear to have been expressed by military officers as to the ability to put Canada in a defensible condition; but the general tenor of the debate indicated that the appropriation asked for would be conceded.

The Savannah Herald reports the capture of Columbus, Georgia, on the Chatahoochie River, by the U. S. cavalry, after a severe engagement. Four or five hundred men belonging to the command of Forrest are said to have been taken prisoners. It was rumored at Savannah that the towns of Eufala and Montgomery, Alabama—the latter being the State capital—had also been captured.

General Butler, in a recent speech, expresses his opinion that there should be no "more talk of taking back Virginia and Louisiana, as states," at present.
